

Joanne You Left Us Too Soon

You were a flower who seemed to be ever in bloom,
Your enigmatic smile, your quiet ways,
Your consistency, your personal manner,
Unmindful of the galleries, unpretentious contributions.

In the garden of Cirque you were a blossoming hidden by a rock,
But your aroma wafted around and enchanted those close by,
In the cosmic history you may only be a blip,
But ah! what a moment you lived.
