

The Spiral of Time

Years have coalesced into one spiraling tube,
Through which we see our genesis and journey,
Grueling is the lived life,
Agonizing its interpretation.

Time colors experience -
Our innate journey can take many forms,
But freedom beckons at every step,
Weaving a kaleidoscopic net of eternity.

Human life could have been better,
If the ways of the world could be trimmed,
Our immaterial souls
Swim in corporeality.
